

LHS TD CLUB
FEBRUARY 4, 2019

The Loganville High School Touchdown Club met Monday night, February 4th, in the team room at Loganville High School in the football fieldhouse.

The meeting was called to order by President Cory Lowe. Jo Mason stated that she had misplaced her notebook with the minutes in it for the November and December meetings and apologized. She stated that if the notebook is found that contained her notes, the minutes will be posted.

The only new business for the night was the election of the new board. The recommendations for the 2019 board were as follows:

Cory Lowe, returning as President

Brandon Cordle , Vice President

Jo Mason, returning as Secretary

Staci Greene, Treasurer

Before voting Cory also asked for nominations from the floor. There were no nominations so nominations were closed. The new board was voted on and passed.

The returning committees and chairs were also announced

Fund Raising – Katie and Clint Farmer

TD Club Membership- Christie Screws

Concessions – looking for someone however Janelle Redding will assist if needed

Spirit Wear – need a volunteer for next year.

Different options were discussed for next season. Billie Akins did a great job this past year but had a terrible time getting volunteers. She stated that she would help anyway possible but did not want to be in charge of it next year due to missing her son play.

Coach Humphreys stated that the March kickoff meeting will be here before we know it and that players will get their packets and information at that time. Coach also stated that we have a lot of boys coming over from the middle school as rising freshman and that they will begin afterschool weight training with them following winter break.

Cory Lowe asked for a motion to adjourn. Motion was made by Denise Vaughn and second was made by Billie Akins. Meeting was adjourned.
